

Gabrieline Reece

Gabrieline Reece. K is the founder of Brand Experience, a PR company that offers big agency thinking with a boutique approach. Brand Experience clients range from large household names right through to innovative challenger brands.

Having been in the PR industry for many years, Gabrieline has developed an extensive background in celebrity PR/events relations-clients including Hollywood A-list, TV personalities & global brands.

Throughout her professional career, Gabrieline has been involved in a variety of different professional fields aside from PR & Communications. These fields include events management, celebrity, beauty, fashion, Women in business, influencer engagement, diversity and inclusion, small business, media relations, independent brands, and more.

These different adventures have led to features in Minnesota Monthly Magazine, Loop Magazine and Level 21 Magazine, for event fashion after dark. In addition, Reece has held fashion shows during London fashion week and New York Fashion week.